Service men to the house when a rethere this morning. They did not countrymen of his-Russian Poles.

"Zelenaka stayed with me for several months," said Terkasky, "He never talked of radicalism or bombs. He was too good a man to be engaged in that kind of business. He attended the Polish Catholic Church on New Jersey Avenue, near Blake Avenue, every Sunday. Before he came to me he lived with Otto Kovilsky at No. 409 New Jersey Avenue. Before that he lived somewhere on Rockaway Avenue, and left there because the gave up the bonse.

LEFT BROOKLYN TO GET REGU-LAR WORK

hors gather and smoke and talk. He West 123d Street Station. naver talked of radicalism. He did The scene of the hold-up is just get work only two or three days a boxes early in August.

"Did he ever show any signs of being deranged?" the reporter asked. It was some time before Terkasky and his friends could comprehend what was meant, butmone of the men, finally putting her hands to er forehead, exclaimed: "Wuts!

Bughouse ?" "No, no!" she cried when the reides, and the crowd joined with her in declaring that Zelanaka was mentally all right.

Otto Kovilsky of No. 459 New Jerlived before he moved to the New Jersey Avenue address, was amased when told by an Evening World reporter that Zelenaka was under arrest in Pittsburgh on suspicion of Street explosion.

"Why," said Kovilsky, "I was born and raised with Zeienaka in Poland. He was an anti-Socialist. I have beard bim dispute against Socialism many times. I never heard him utter a radical idea. He was a quiet.

shupsh-going, industrious man. "He came to see me a few days before he went West-about a month age, I should say. He said conditions were had in the tailering business and he was going out of town to get a job and if he couldn't get a job as K tailor he would go on a farm.

"Zelenaka worked in a powder mill he left that place he came over here to live with me and he had some had collected as souvenirs."

The detectives on an examination of the room Zelenaka had occupied, stairs to learn what the commotion found evidence that he had once reen was about. a B. R. T. motorman and a butcher. as well as a tailor. From a pay es. the coffee house were met to-day essections that the holdup had be employed by the Hercules Powder

There was evidence he had been emla Pittsburgh.

made out to Zelenaka, dated Oct 1. He said he had been in the New Co.
1918, but the agents refused to reveal trai Cafe many times, but was n from what city it was dated. His last there at the time of the hold-up. employment, it seems, was about four weeks before he left the Cleveland Street house, when he worked as a taffor in a shop in Riverdale Avenue, Brooklyn. These things were indicated by a cursory examination of New Jersey Governor Says He the papers before they were taken to Pederal headquarters.

COX UNBEATABLE, SAYS WATTERSON

"Better Get Aboard the Band Wagon, Boys," Declares Veteran Editor.

dol. Henry Watterson, who is spending a few days in the city, to-day gave out an interview on the political situa-

"Write It, Cox the unbestable," said the veteran journalist. "He is a journalist and that means a great deal. The lawyer is a controversialist, a logician, a mason of doctrines, theories equities, the doctor is a healer, and more or less a specialist. The journalist is an all-around man of affairs, that is what we require in a President of the United States.

Cox is a man among men. He has shown himself over a practical man; as the saying puts it, "has studied the a word, he does things we went, we and that sort of a man in the White

"Now comes the chance for the Democrats to get together to wipe out old scores and with a long pull, a atroog pull and a pull all together, to

of ess and 54-20 or fight.

FIRE AT POLICEMAN

Scene of Lenox Baths Robbery in August.

family with which he was stopping flourishing pistols, beld up the the Outober Kings County Grand walters and customers in the New Jury to-day urged action be taken Central cafe, an all-night coffee house against gambiers who are believed to "Kevilmey was born in the same at No. 111 Lenex Avenue, at 4 A. M. have formed plans to "fix' the World's town with him in Russian Poland, and to-day, took all the jowelry and Series baseball games. Judge Dike found another room. He stayed with money they could find and escaped. said: found another room. H estayed with Five went over the roof and one who him for three months. Zelenaka used ran to the street ran down the sub-

Attempts to hide the facts of the When he went away he took all bold-up cropped up at the coffee house that loved and encouraged true his clothing in a yellow suitcase. He as soon as the excitement had abated, sportsmanship. The Brooklyn Basea left behind him a trunk, and the men At the West 123d Street Police Station ball team, which has so spiendidly who came jast night took everything the robbery was minimized. While won a great victory, should be above In the care, and that the loot consisted game of our country. of $110 and a cheap watch,

The police version is that only sorter nodded that she had got his They entered the coffee house, which building in a neighborhood where allnight coffee places flourish. The hallway is dark and narrow and there is only one narrow door leading to the cafe. The six bandits covered their faces with handkerohiefs and, with revolvers presented, marched in, ordering every one to hold up their hands. The circumstances trend to the beknowing something about the Wall lief that they were after one man, in particular, who was supposed to carry large sums of money. While three bandits levelled their weapons at the growd, the other three searched the men, and were angry when the man who was believed to carry much money failed to yield anything but a cheap watch.

While the searchers were busy a man opened a window and yellod for the police. The six bandits rushed from the room, five of them making their way to the roof and getting away toward 115th Street. One man ran from the street door into a subway klosk just as Policeman Gorey over in New Jersey in 1912. When appeared. The robber fired three shots at the policeman, who returned the fire. The man disappeared south. places of wire and other things he running on the subway roadbed after rushing past the ticket chopper. Gerey did not follow, but went up-

Attempts to obtain information at newhere on the next block. When reporter went to the place twenty Company about two years ago. His butcher shop was in Morris County, In J.

A large fereign-made trunk was crammed with Russian literature, the street door would admit that the boldyp had taken place in the gard. crammed with Russian literatura, letters and copies of radical newspapers, the detectives said, much of which will have to be translated. There was evidence he had been employed in Woodman, West Va., at one time, and had a post office how in Pittyburgh.

There was avidence he had been employed in Woodman, West Va., at one time, and had a post office how in the hold-up. He will be given a hearing Wedneslay Mocormack was arrested at 8th Avenue and 118th Street by Detective Also there was a Russian passport Lynch of West 135d Street Station

EDWARDS TO FIRE UTILITIES BOARD

Will Make the Formal Annonncement This Week.

Gov. Edwards of New Jersey stated o-day that he would announce, either amissioners were tried + before the Governor on charges of neglect of duty and misconduct in office, preferred by the Mayor and Commissioners of Jorse; City. The misconduct charged is the hervice Corporation, and points for the moning system.

It was reported to-day that for the new beard Representative James A. Namili of tunism County, and Frank M. Sommer of Essex County will be appointed, and that John W. Quaen, formerly Judge, has been effered the pest of Counsel, now held by L. Edward Rerrisan. Mr. Harrman and Associate Counsel will contest the Governor right to remove the hoard and

TEXAS UP TO 4,661,027.

Papalation Increases 19.0 Per Cent.-Idaho Bas 431,826,

WASHINGTON, Dct. 4 .- The popu- sey as follows: Stion of Texas is 4,661,027, according Essex County, Nowark, 652,685; Increase, 119,203, or as the saying puts it, "has studied the cure papers, and ascertained the difference betwix a hawk and buzzard," in last ten years of 764,485, or 19.6 per linde County, New Jarsey, sentain-

JAMAICA RESULTS.

and when took by the reporter all laughed. All eath they were 30 IN RESTAURANT; TO TAKE UP FIXING OF BALL GAMES

Hold-Up in Coffee House Near Brooklyn Judge for Full Inquiry Into Charges of Gambling Activities.

Hig masked bandits, three of them | County Judge Dike in charging

"Public reports indicate a wideto spend his nights on a bench in way tracks after exchanging shots spread interest among the people of front of our home where the neigh- with Policeman James Gorey of the like community relative to the baseball situation. District Attorney Lewis has been active in making talk about the lack of work in his around the corner from the Lenox certain investigations. It may be Strade, which is that of a clothlag Batha, where six masked men held up that he may appear before your body maker. He left here because he could the help and robbed the valuables and present evidence which I am sure you will investigate,

"Brooklyn wants no stain upon her sporting record, such as has been tape." three of the robbers had revolvers. so grievously suffered by Chicago. of heatlh.

"If it can be found true, however, gave this account: that plans were laid to try to corrupt and punished. We want clean sport tion of $500,000 for the repair and alin Brooklyn and we are happy to sup. teration of school properties in vari-ous parts of the city, including Public port and encourage it, but we will not stand by and let any class of parasite beamirch the name of our city by corrupting among us our national game in its best standards."

The foreman of the Grand Jury is asked. On Sept. 1 the bids means a parasite the city, including Public School No. 25, where the city including Public School No. 25, where stating that he had no evidence that Lowis Saturday, based on the report that Mr. Hoyne had said he was in possession of such syldence.

The foreman of the Grand Jury is

William J. Fallon, counsel for Aba Attell, former prize fighter whom District Attorney Swann has been seeking for a week to question in connection with the baseball scandal of last year's world series, declared that the public had been misinformed

"I'll tell you what really happened." said Mr. Failon. "Attell was drinking when he met Burns, who told him what he wanted done. Burna said ha had made the proposition to Arnoid Rothstein, who turned it down, Burns then all ran out. then approached Attell and asked him

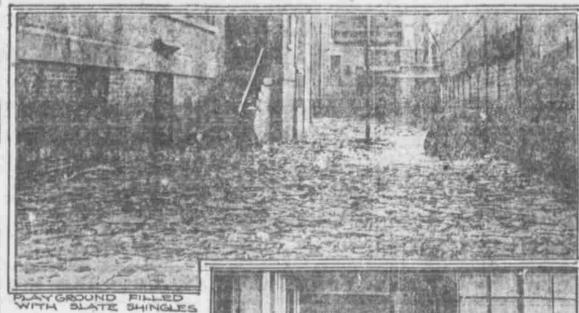

"Mr. Rorks said he wanted to interview Abs Attell," said Fallon. "I told him that Attell was not in a position to discuss the Irish question with him. Rorke said it was not on the Irish question that he wanted to talk with Attell. Bo I told him to go and find Attell. The truth is that Attell is in New York and Wednesday or Thursday, his dismissal can be found in his usual haunta of the Public Utilities Board. The five have first been made to avoid the torannisationers were tried before the product of inacrying of a subpoena."

When Mr. Swann was asked to-day for others than Attell he said; allowing of higher fares to the Public a "I have not. But I have the names sevice Corporation, and permitting the of a number of Broadwayites who are oning system. It was reported to-day that for the supposed to know something shout the baseball scandal. I have asked their friends to ask them to come and see me. I have also telephoned po-sonally to several that I know. Huthey all keep away from ma.'

JERSEY COUNTIES REVISED.

Red Tape Keeps School Children In Ill-Lighted and Unsanitary Building

Brooklyn School, Damaged by Fire in March, Is Not Yet Repaired.

first reports were that the six men suspicion. The situation is not local Public School No. 25 in Brooklyn. held up sixty-two men in the place and unimportant; it is widespread which was damaged by fire last March took about $7,000 in cash and jeweiry, and most vital. There can be no and has not yet been repaired, al-Detective Charles Kerr at the station tarnish upon the sportsmanship of though almost seven months have said that there were only thirty men those who represent the national passed, have saked, hitherto in vain, for the reason,

The answer is apparently: "Red

The Eyening World to-day ob-Members of the Brooklyn team have tained certain data from the office of been found above suspicion and they C. B. J. Snyder, Superintendent of have promptly been given a clean bill School Buildings. Mr. Snyder was not there but a member of his staff

"Immediately after the fire the Suthem, then those concerned in those parintendent of Buildings asked the plans should be brought to justice Board of Estimate for an appropriaasked. On Sept. 1 the bids were re-ceived showing that the exact cost of the repairs on P. S. No. 25 would boldt Street, Brooklyn.

Westervelt Prentice, No. 306 Hum-boldt Street, Brooklyn.

District Attorney Lewis of Brooklyn to-day received a telegram from which approved them on Sept. 15. ter agreed to get to work yesterday since Which date the contracts have of the repairs on P. S. No. 25 would been in the hands of the Comptroller's certainly will mart soon."

Meanwhile, half a year after the which approved them on Sept. 15. ter agreed to get to work yesterday in ill-lighted and overcrowded rooms.

FIRE LAST MARCH

HE photographs reproduced here illustrate some of the results of the long delay in repairing Public School No. 25 in Brooklyn, damaged by fire last March and not yet repaired.

One picture shows three light classrooms which cannot be used, while | Oct. 1, adopted unanimously a motion bildren have to study by gaslight in other rooms. The other shows the playground from which the children are banished, having to play in the

the forthcoming World Beries had been "fixed." The telegram was in FROM POULTRY MAN PRISONER ADMITS HE WAS BRINGING Three Flee in Motor Car, but

DYNAMITE HERE

(Continued.)

LAUREL ENTRIES.

Fourth, Who Tried to Fire at Policeman Is Caught.

While Jacob Scheinblub was openng up his poultry market at No. 173 Richardson Street, Brooklyn, and proparing for business to-day, three men who drove up to the place with a into one of the offices. Keeping him unexpectedly stepped into his room to his sister was not. thus covered, one of the quartette took $1,200 from the cash drawer and seen the dynamite. He said hertold

Patrolman Elisworth saw them to New York. to get Rothstein to reconsider. When dash for their waiting car and started Konkel told the police Zelenaka mother in 1907 by her first husband, whether he had sent out subposuna trate Prothingham fined Louis Karn west 19th Street, Bring at No. 886 Dasi that deaf with foreigners in this city Ruger fo-day.

Eighth Street, Brooklyn, $2 for discremendars the name Zengcaka.

Mr. Vork who is named as guardian arderly enndant. The complaint was made by David

Lewis, House Manager, who alteged that Kabn's objections to giving up the has he occupied and which, Lewis sali, belonged to another, interferred with Kahn said he had got the tioltets through a broker with whom he had a Beseg Has 652.580 Populaties and monthly account, and that when told in had been given the box lickets in error offered to changs if he could have secrething just a good, He said this the population of counties in New Jer-

Essex County, New Jersey, containing VOTED POR G. O. P. 70 YEARS. After voting the Republican ticket "straight" for seventy years, John A. Lindo's population is 431.816, an in-ling Jersey City, 420,156; increase, day at his home at No. 307 Lefterts 151.9.2 or 17.1 per cent. Passale County, New Jersey, contain-for ten months, and his children and tng Paterson, 259,174; increase, 43,273, grandchildren were graking arrangetry Peterson, 200,174; increase, 43.773, or 20 per cent.

Union County, $00,037; increase, 15,040, or 42.7 per cent.

Morris County, $2,294; increase, 15,040, or 10.3 per cent.

Atlantic County, $3,808; increase, 24,100; increase, 25,100; or 10.4 per cent.

Itypun County, $18,708; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,708; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,708; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

Monmouth County, $18,808; increase, 25,100; or 10.5 per cent.

HEIRESS TO $1,000,000 CLAIMED BY FATHER WHO GAVE HER AWAY

(Continued.)

fourth man in a motor car, entered and said Konkel, who also engaged a that although the adoption by the the store, drew pistols and forced him room at the St. Charles Hotel, had grandmother was legal, the transfer while his suit case was open and had FOSJER MOTHER'S HUSBAND LEFT BIG ESTATE. Konkel he was taking the dynamito; The estate was left to Hazel's foste:

Attell called up Rothstein he got the Attell called up Rothstein he go Attell called up Rothstein he got the the party, who had evidently been on address to-night when he "would be physician and politican, who died divorced in 1916. She married Walter same kind of an answer that Burns and got-nothing doing. Then Attell had got-nothing doing. Then Attell and Burns and Curiey Bennett put their heads together and Burns and Curiey Bennett put their heads together and Burns and Curiey Bennett put their heads together and Burns and Curiey Bennett put their heads together and Burns and Curiey Bennett put the talegram to Chicago, signing the talegram to Chicago, signing Rothstein's initials. Rothstein himself knew nothing about it. I am not it is the army weapon self knew nothing about it. I am not it is the army weapon and politician, who died three and politician three and politician, who died three and politician three and po Sistement in justice to him."

Mr. Fallon said he had received another telephone message to-day from Assistant District Attorney Rorks.

In this prisoner gave his name as curred in Wall Street, would occur ing an accidental overdose of within a short time. This Zelenaka morphine and was not suicide. His from Assistant District Attorney Rorks.

In Whitman there has been con-ROW IN THEATRE

COST HIM $2 FINE

Trouble Occurred at Casino When Dress Manufacturer Got in Mixup Over Seats.

A dispute over theater tickets as a slice to decide whistless Zelenko was like to have the will set aside.

Sept. 8, had its aftermath to-day in a more serious charge should be divine a considerable part of ling in the coal country, or whether a more serious charge should be divine a considerable part of life trate Prothingham fined Louis Kara.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4.—Neither Fedural that the will was not her own

Mr. York, who is named as guardian in the will, said at his home, No. 254 West Zalh Street, that he was con-LAUREL HACE TRACK, Md., Oct. fident the will could not be set ande. are an follows:

| Clast | LACA Two year olds: gathing for and a ball ingineer. Longs Males. 20: Karshing for the control of t BEE HER.

"We contend that the father's gonsent was not necessary for the readoption, as he had already given his consent to the original adoption and the grandmother gave her consent to of Horses to be midden by forkers that have the readoption, "The girl does not want to go back to her father. She has never seen him and he has never made any attompt to see her. He never paid any attention to her before, but now that she has come into money she has suddenly become dear to him." Until Thursday Hazel lived with the family of her guardian, who has chitdren of his own, and with whom she will continue to five unless the will is get asido. David W. Myers was the only relative left out of the will, He said to-day he did not know why his plater out him off, For sixteen years before his sister's marriage to Dr. Shupard, he said, he was Dr. Shep-

BUT VERY WEARY ON HIS 53D DAY

Had Several Hours of Sleep Thieves Pummel Each Other Last Night-Was Close to Exhaustion Yesterday.

LONDON, Oct. 4 .- Terence Mac-Swiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, passed a fair night at Brixton Prison, Laving had several hours' alser, but it does not seem to have refreshed him much, said a bulletin issued this tinguished Service Cross of McDoumorning by the Irish Self-Determina- gal Street. For early this morning the condition of the Lord Mayor except that he is very weary, the bulletin adds. This is the fifty-third day of ManBwiney's hunger strike, this forenoon stated the Lord Mayor arounsed by the breaking in of his after some sleep last night, ap-peared to be better this morning.

Policeman Ellied in Cork; four Wounded.

CORK, Oct. 4 .- A series of skirmishes sailant on the calf. The burgiar one policeman and the wounding of four others. Official reports show that the attack was of the nature of guerilla fighting by bands of armed men, who operated under the cover of darkness.

FRANCE TO FIGHT AUSTRIA'S SCHEME

"Important Action" to Be Taken to Prevew Union With

PARIS, Oct. 2.-"Important measures" are to be taken to enforce th tems of the treatles with German) and Austria and prevent a union by tween those nations, abould the proposed Austrian plebiseits decids favor of the project according to the Foreign office to-day.

The Austrian National Anfembly, or lling on the Government to carry out within six weeks a plebiselts on the unjon of Austria with Germany, Meanwaile, It is understood, no ac ion will be taken with a view to preventing the holding of the pichiscits intil views are exchanged between France, Great Britain and Italy to deomes under the ban of the treaties. Comptroller Travis Hearing Put Off. The John Doe investigation into harges made against State Comptroler Eugene M. Travis in connection with the buying of bonds for the State linking Fund, which was to have starro his afternoon, was adjourned until- 3 s'clock to-morrow afternoon, it was an ard's coachman, and also attended to some of his real estate, Although Hazel's foster-mother was married twice after the death of Dr. Shepard, her second and third marriages were unhappy, and at the ime of her death she preferred to be known as Mrs. Shepard.

The widow adopted Hazel in 1808. The following year Mrs. Shepard Mague and Mass Kindred. They said the notion directing heat to be said the notion directing heat to be said that dependent of the American Can. Company, whom she Attorneys for both sides in the present litigation said to-day they did not know where Morris is at present or what part he may be expected to play in the fight. He was not mentioned in the will.

"Taker, but f here an engagement with my own favorite him to-night."

BURGLARS, SAVES MASTER'S LIFE

Trying to Fight Off Animal in Brooklyn.

"Waggie," a waif of Bmooklyn's streets, may never get a blue ribbon, but her mastery John' Daly; in going to apply in her behalf for the Dis-Wagnie routed three burgtam and Deplots do not find much change in saved the scalp and preperty of Mr. Daly.

Mr. Daly lives in a room at No. 76 McDougal Street, Brooklyn, with A builetin issued at the home office Wangle for his companion. He was was not nearly so well yesterday, but, door, and before he was fairly on his feet three men were on top of him, pummelling about the head and body. Waggie, a little ball of white, bounded out of bed and bit the nearest as-Cork have resulted in the death of jurned to smite waggle and biffed one of his companions instead.

Waggie dedged in and out among the legs of the trio, taking a bite here and there, and the burglars kicked one another in trying to reach the dog. In the scrimmage Daly reached the street in his palamas and yelled for the police. Detective William Regan ran upstairs, beaching the room n time to see two men on the roof, but caught one who gave his name as Caspar Consens, 24 years old, of No. 95 Wilson Avenue. He was held for burglary by Magistrate McGuire in the Gates Avenue Police Court with bail at 1,500.

WANDERER WILL PLEAD INSANITY

Charged With Murder of His Wife and "Ragged Stranger" in Fake Hold Up.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 .- Lieut, Carl Wanharged with the murder of his young wife and a "ragged stranger" whom Wanderer tricked to his death to subsimilate a story of an attempted hold-up.

Mrs. Wanderer who was soon to beone a mother and the stranger were hot to death in the hallway of Wanderer's apartment. Wanderer said the man had attempted to rob them, and and shot Mrs. Wanderer. killed his wife's assailant, he hald. Wanderer pleaded not gullty. strorneys announced the defense would base its case on hereditary insentiary,

The morning was spent in question my jurors.

TENANTS SITTING TIGHT. Four Tennats Befuse to Vacate

Apariments at Woodside. Four of the twenty-four families ocupying the six-story spartment hours at No. 193 Struder Avenue, Woodside Queens, are still in possession of their apartments to-day, although ordered by the owner, the Queenshore Corporation of Oct. 1. The four. conents who are "sitting tight" are J Kenny, John O'Brien, Mina Piorunce

Our Big Special for Monday, October 4th Signals an Extraordinary Candy Opportunity

CHOCOLATE COVERED ICE CREAMS "and then you'll be surrefised." typifring the old alogan of "They melt in your mouth." Not 50es which is going to be the regular selling order, but incl to inheadure them to the nubile and to demonstrate the nonce of selling tons of early what we others sell pumple—the price of this neticle is only 20es, and if there is an horiz in the tity of New York who does not declare this the hept value in the world for the 29c ONE DAY SPECIAL ONLY, POUND BOX

Announcing a Splendid Tuesday Special

FRUIT AND NUT TOP BON BONS-Here's a delicacy of distinctive charm and this ar. They are hig Bon Bons of global Fronts Creams having centres of delictaons Greeny Charmalate. As a finishing testure each goods is comed off with a tasty but or a particular of lincolne Fronts.

Other Attractions for Monday

ASSORTED PRUITAND NUT IN TELE-CUPS—A collection of dainty, sitky finished listed randy pillars of pleasing tints and the yors, stuffed with chenped Fruits or POUND DOX 59C

CHINO CHERRIES-The reddeat, ripost Cherries, abundant with biscious juice uce first plunged in rich Fondant Cream and enteloped in coverings of our In-comparable Fremium Milk Cinco-POUND BOX 75C

For exact foralism are telephone directory, The movelified weight sucludes the container.